Park and Recreation Management

In the specialization of park and recreation management students acquire professional management skills that can be applied in a wide variety of recreation and leisure facilities and programs around the world. Through class practica, projects, internship opportunities, and field experiences, students learn leadership, management, programming, marketing and evaluation, legal aspects of park and recreation management, and communication skills.

Career possibilities include:

- National and state parks, which provide opportunities for recreation professionals interested in special events programming, aquatics, and youth services
- Commercial settings, which offer thousands of positions in theme parks, health/fitness spas, racquet clubs, and hotels
- Military recreation, which supports 250,000 full-time employees with 10,000,000 users at 900 locations within the United States and 350 overseas locations. Positions as programmers are available on all types of military bases - Air Force, Army, Navy and Marine
- Municipal parks and recreation departments, which offer numerous positions in cultural art, youth, and older adult programming
- YMCA's/YWCA's - At the 2,200 Y's in the United States there are approximately 4,000 job opportunities in positions such as youth services and program directors
