

SCHOOL OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, AND RECREATION

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Adapted Physical Education

Master of Science in Kinesiology degree (35 – 37 cr.)

3.0 GPA required for graduation, Minimum C- in each course

Effective for students matriculating fall 2008

Department of Kinesiology – HPER 112 – (812) 855-5523

Adapted Physical Education Core Courses (20 hrs total):

HPER-K 524 – Exercise and Physical Activity for People With Disabilities (3 hrs)

HPER-K 550 – Motor Assessment of Persons with Disabilities (3 hrs)

HPER-K 551 – Medical Aspects of Disabling Conditions (3 hrs)

HPER-K 552 – Problems in Adapted Physical Education (3 hrs)

HPER-K 572 – The Physical Education Curriculum (3hrs)

HPER-K 577 – Seminar and Practicum in Adapted Physical Activity (5 hrs over two semesters)

Students choose between a thesis option and a non-thesis option

Thesis option: (17 hours total):

HPER-T 590 – Introduction to Research in Health, Kinesiology and Recreation (3 hrs)

HPER-T 591 – Interpretation of Data in Health, Kinesiology and Recreation (3 hrs)

HPER-K 600 – Master's Thesis (5 cr.)

Directed Electives (6 cr.)

Non-thesis option: (15 cr.)

HPER-T 590 – Introduction to Research in Health, Kinesiology and Recreation (3 hrs)

Directed Electives (12 cr.)

Exit Requirement: Pass National APENS examination

Effective Fall 2008