

SCHOOL OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, AND RECREATION

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Ph.D. in Health Behavior

3.0 GPA required for graduation, Minimum C in each course
Applied Health Science – HPER 116 – (812) 855-3627

Requirements for this degree are prescribed by an advisory committee for each individual student. For a complete listing of the rules and regulations relating to this degree, please visit the School of HPER Bulletin on the Web at www.indiana.edu/~bulletin/iub.

Common requirement components include:

Research Skills – Typically 9 credits of course work providing required skills to conduct research, such as statistical analysis. These credits to not count toward the 90 credits required in the major, minor, electives, and dissertation portions of the degree.

Major – 30 credits minimum

Minor – 12 to 15 credits

Electives – 0 to 28credits

Dissertation – 20 to 30 credits